EXHIBITIONS

*A Gift from the Desert: The Art, History and Culture of the Arabian Horse May 29 – October 15, 2010 – International Museum of the Horse

A Gift from the Desert: The Art, History and Culture of the Arabian Horse, sponsored by the Saudi Arabian Equestrian Federation, is a major, international, blockbuster exhibition featuring more than 400 pieces of art and artifacts from museums, private collections and educational institutions in the Middle East, Europe and the United States. Not a traveling exhibition, the International Museum of the Horse is curating this exhibition directly with 26 world lenders, and the exhibition will be one of the top events in Kentucky and one of the major art exhibitions in all of North America in 2010.

This is the American Saddlebred

March 15 – December 30, 2010 – American Saddlebred Museum – The Showplace for Saddlebreds

This is the American Saddlebred explores the versatility of the “horse America made” from Civil War mount to dressage and show jumping competitor; from cutting, reining and trail riding horse to children’s companion; and, from backyard pet to show-ring star.
