July 18, 2009Sweet Corn Festival at Evans Orchard and Cider Mill

Come out and enjoy a summer day in the country with your friends and family. Live music begins at noon and at noon Ronnie Lawson will take the stage. At 2:30 there will be corn-eating and Ale-8-One chugging contests. Those attending can choose between corn hole games, crafts booths and hay rides, while the children can visit a petting zoo and the Apple Cider Slider, a multistory play area. There is also a new attraction that offers the opportunity to see nature at work. A beehive observatory is being built and hopefully will be finished for the festival. It'll have a plexiglass window where you can watch the bees at work, and the queen bee will be marked. There will be plenty of food: corn on the cob, kettle corn, cheeseburgers, rib-eye sandwiches, snow cones, fried apple and peach pies made from homegrown peaches and apples, and pork rinds. New this year is ice cream. Fresh vegetables and fruits also available. 180 Stone Road. Tuesday - Saturday 9:30 a.m.-6 p.m. For information, 502-863-2255
