

Christmas in the Country

DAY ONE

Afternoon

- Georgetown is the perfect beginning to your Kentucky Bourbon Trail experience, as it is attributed to be the birthplace of bourbon. Visit Buffalo Trace Distillery in nearby Frankfort and take a free tour to see the bourbon making process.

Evening

- Take a Christmas Candelight Tour of Ward Hall. See the historic home lit up for the holidays.
- Afterward, kindle some romance at one of our local restaurants with a magical evening courtesy of our renowned chefs.

DAY TWO

Morning

- Visit St. Francis de Sales Mission, the oldest church in the Diocese of Covington. It was originally built in 1794 and rebuilt in 1820.

Afternoon

- Attend a Georgetown Tigers basketball game and cheer on the home team.
- See a matinee at the Theatres of Georgetown. Enjoy free popcorn on Tuesdays.
- Grab a coffee and sweet treat at one of our local bakeries. Get a relaxing massage at The Studio or get a manicure at Sutra Salon & Spa.

Evening

- Drive through over four miles of lights at Southern Lights at Kentucky Horse Park. After driving through the lights, park and enjoy local crafts, model trains, mini train rides, visits with Santa and the exotic petting zoo.
