

SEASONAL

Spring Forward in Scott County

DAY ONE

Afternoon

- Make an appointment to visit one of Georgetown's local horse farms. Some of the world's most magnificent horse farms can be found in the area.
- In April, attend the Keeneland Spring Meet or the Rolex 3-Day event at the Kentucky Horse Park.
- Show off your artistic skills at Bless Your h'Art, Birdsong Quilting & Crafts, Gretchen's Heirlooms & Gifts for Scrap Paper Scizzors. Check out their websites for classes.

Evening

- Go swimming and get in a workout at The Pavilion. For a more relaxing evening, try Candlelight Yoga at The Studio. Afterward, enjoy dinner and watch the game at Wilshire's or Galvin's on Main.

DAY TWO

Morning

- Visit Georgetown Cemetery, home to fascinating Victorian monuments, final resting place of equine artist Edward Troye and several Kentucky governors.

Afternoon

- Take a walk through the beautiful spring cherry blossoms at Yuko-En on the Elkhorn, the official Kentucky-Japanese Friendship Garden featuring primarily native plants blended with Japanese garden principles.
- In April, fly a kite at the Georgetown International Kite & Culture Festival at the Cardome Center, formerly the monastery of the Sisters of Visitation.
- Go horseback riding at Whispering Woods Riding Stables.

Evening

- Take an early evening drive through the countryside along the Buffalo Gals Barn Quilt Trail. Colorful quilts decorate the sides of the barns thanks to the "Buffalo Gals" of Stamping Ground.
- Enjoy authentic Thai food at Thai Garden or pasta at Formaggio Italiano.
