KENTUCKY
Georgetown

SCOTT • COUNTY

Uncover the secrets of pure small-town charm.

Stroll along Georgetown's picturesque Main Street surrounded by Victorian-era buildings. You'll discover charming antique shops, art galleries and boutiques, local history museum, arts & cultural center, and an eclectic array of dining options. Georgetown is just minutes from the Kentucky Horse Park, a nationally renowned 1,200-acre equine themed park. Enjoy horseback riding and horse farm tours including Old Friends Thoroughbred Retirement Farm, home to Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Silver Charm. Visit nearby Keeneland Race Course. Speaking of horsepower, take a guided motorized tram tour of the world's largest vehicle manufacturing plant and see the remarkable process from beginning to end. Tour Ward Hall, a Greek Revival antebellum mansion. See Noah's Ark up-close with a short drive to the world-renowned Ark Encounter.

Georgetown is ideally located at the crossroads of I-75 and I-64 and is within a day's drive to 2/3 of the US population.
