

Little Silver Charm & Big Victorian Charm

“Meet Georgetown equine treasure, Little Silver Charm, a miniature horse named for the great thoroughbred, Silver Charm, at Old Friends. Find local treasures in dozens of locally-owned shops, boutiques and art galleries lining the Victorian streetscape of downtown Georgetown.”

Morning Old Friends Thoroughbred Retirement Farm

Experience an up-close & personal tour of Old Friends Farm, home to over 100 former horses whose racing and breeding careers have come to an end. Feed carrots to past Derby winners or pet movie celebrities such as Seabiscuit's Popcorn Delights. Here you will find Georgetown's equine treasure, Little Silver Charm, a miniature horse with a big personality.

Afternoon Downtown Georgetown

Stroll along Georgetown's picturesque Victorian-era downtown district and check out the wide array of antique and boutique shops, ducking into the Georgetown Antique Mall for hidden gems, Heirlooms & Gretchen's for one-of-a-kind stained-glass pieces and Birdsong Quilting for a perfectly designed fabric. Pick up a cute fall sweater at Em + Me Boutique or crafted jewelry at Miss Behaven. Find world-class equine photography at Hockensmith Fine Art Editions or a local wine at Maime's Fine Wine & Gifts.

Evening Ward Hall

Tour the grand and gracious Greek-Revival-style mansion, Ward Hall. Explore this 12,000-square-foot villa that was paid for in $50,000 in gold when it was built in the 1850s and hear the stories of Sallie Ward, the "Belle of Louisville,” who loved nothing more than scandalizing polite society. Pair your evening in the mansion with dessert and tea, just like they would’ve over a century ago.
